SUMMER SCHOOL
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE
Paris-Saclay, France
29 June - 12 July 2020
Broaden your knowledge in a rapidly advancing area of Engineering and collaborate with peers from around the world! The summer school in Artificial Intelligence, hosted by CentraleSupélec, combines lectures, tutorials and hands-on sessions in such areas as machine learning, deep and reinforced learning, computer vision and learning in networks. The programme also includes team-based competitions, along with visits to companies and laboratories, and cultural and social activities in and around Paris.

PROGRAMME TAUGHT IN ENGLISH

Eligibility
- 3rd and 4th year undergraduate students, 1st year graduate students
- Engineering or Science background
- Skills in Python and programming

Programme cost
- 2000 euros
  - Includes: course, accommodation, meals during the programme, on-site transportation, industry & company visits, organized social & cultural activities.
  - Does not include: travel expenses, personal insurance, meals during spare time and weekends.

Apply before 10 May 2020 at summerschoolcentralesupelec.fr
For more information: summerschool@centralesupelec.fr

QS Ranking (2020)